INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS

Names in bold letters are authors of primary texts (cited in Parts I and II). They are listed by their first name where known; otherwise by their last name. Names which are spelled in more than one way are listed under their most common spelling, with some cross-referencing. However, effort may be needed in locating authors who go under titles (e.g., Śāstri) or a variety of names. Names not in bold type are persons other than authors of primary texts (including editors, translators, authors of articles, people mentioned in book titles). They are listed alphabetically by last name.

Lower-case letters mean the following:

- a = article
- b = book
- d = dissertation
- e = edition
- f = felicitation volume
- i = index, catalogue, bibliography
- n = notes
- s = summary
- t = translation
- y = discussed in

TOPICS INDEX

Lower-case letters indicate the type of work, such as article (a), book (b), dissertation (d), felicitation volume (f), or translation(t) [see Abbreviations for a complete list.]

Numerical references not preceded by upper-case letters are found in Part I.

Numerical references preceded by the upper-case letters DU (Dates Unknown) and ADU (Author and Date Unknown) are found in Part II and Part III respectively.

Numerical references preceded by any other upper-case letters (such as AV, or combinations such as Ac) are found in the sections of Part IV.

Example: absence - a135.1.1, 560.8.6; NV248; H1266, 2632. bNV361, 387.

[The word "absence" occurs in articles 135.1.1 and 560.8.6 in Part I; in article 248 in the NV section of Part IV and in articles 1266 and 2632 in the H section; and in 2 books in the NV section of Part IV with the numbers 361 and 387.]

Some cross-referencing among topics has been attempted, but readers should use their imagination and patience in consulting this index. Topics are generally derived directly from the titles of the publications cited and may not fully or accurately reflect the contents of the publications.
